

Invitation for Applications: Teaching Artists for online courses for adults 55+

PrimeLife Arts Learning (PAL) invites dynamic, experienced and creative Teaching Artists to apply to our online creative aging program.

The mission of PrimeLife Arts Learning is to inspire 55+ adults to explore their creativity; to build stronger relationships and bridge connections to new communities; and to advocate for equity and anti-ageism in arts learning.

We are currently seeking artists in all art forms and styles, e.g. visual arts, music, dance, theatre, creative writing, and digital media.

PAL Teaching Responsibilities Include:

- Designing and executing an age-appropriate project-based, socially engaging arts curriculum.
- Collaborating effectively with coworkers, including a Tech TA, and communicating regularly with supervisory staff.
- Submitting complete lessons plans, timesheets, reports and other vital administrative documentation.

PAL selects Teaching Artists who embody the following qualities:

- Artistic Excellence, including quality and scope of professional artistic work, and depth of knowledge within an artistic discipline.
- Engaging Teaching, especially incorporating the creative process, reaching students across diverse age groups (adult 55+ and intergenerational) and various skill levels, yielding quality student work.
- Strong facility to work within or adapt to a range of digital learning environments.

Compensation:

The Teaching Artist pay scale range is $65-$90/hour, depending on the project. Training and planning time is also compensated.
